

DEFINITIONS

Ordinary course profit forecast

A profit forecast published by the offeree company or a securities exchange offeror in accordance with its established practice and as part of the ordinary course of its communications with its shareholders and the market.