

DEFINITIONS

Principal trader

A principal trader is a person who:

- (1) is registered as a market-maker with a recognised investment exchange, or is accepted by the Panel as a market-maker; or
- (2) is a member firm of a recognised investment exchange dealing as principal in order book securities.